

Holy Ink Spiritual Writing & Memoir Workshops

Led by Cathy Warner

Certified in Amherst Writers & Artists Workshop Method

Explore your faith, unearth your memories, name what you know, bring the Bible to life, pray with a pen, spread the Word!

Schedule your group for a one-day or overnight writing retreat at Cathy Warner's home in Boulder Creek in the beautiful Santa Cruz Mountains. A minimum of six participants is required. Limited overnight accommodations are available at Cathy's. Cabin rentals, motels and camping are nearby. Onsite recreation includes hiking, use of hot tub and swimming pool [weather permitting].

Cathy is also available to lead workshops in the San Francisco/Monterey Bay areas.

Workshops are appropriate for small groups (up to 12) including memoir writers, Bible studies, leadership teams, and personal enrichment for both clergy and laity. Writing exercises will be tailored to your needs. No writing experience necessary. Sharing is optional and conducted in a supportive environment. Diversity of participants and beliefs is honored. United Methodist Advanced Lay speaking credit is available with prior arrangement.

For more information email: cathy_warner@bcumc.com, or send request to: Holy Ink, Boulder Creek UMC, P.O. Box 2187, Boulder Creek CA 95006. References available on request.

Cathy Warner, Certified Amherst Writers & Artists writing workshop leader is Conference Lay Minister at Boulder Creek United Methodist Church. Her poetry and fiction have won several awards including a Pushcart Prize nomination and has appeared in several literary journals. She has been published in Alive Now and Courageous Spirit by the Upper Room and the anthology Not What I Expected. Her spiritual writing blog is: <http://holyink.blogspot.com>.